

In the GAC Galleries - May 2011

Main Gallery - Ivy Walker

Tenuous, Ivy's exhibit, consists of untitled photographs of landscapes from Gunnison to Crested Butte with a few from the Moab, UT area. Pieces of paper in the photographs are cut with patterns borrowed from vintage fabric.

Upper Gallery - ORSCH Student show

A progressive school developing progressive thinkers.

Orsch is an innovative approach to K-8 education which resembles a one room school house in its student population, but uses the most up-to-date educational philosophies in its implementation.